

Killian Venman is a New Hampshire based percussionist and multimedia artist. He graduated from New York University with a Jazz Percussion Masters of Music degree in May 2020. While in New York, Mr. Venman studied under the likes of Bobby Previte, Billy Drewes, Mike Richmond, David Schroeder and John Hadfield. Mr. Venman's main instrument is percussion, although he is also proficient in piano, ukulele, and guitar. He has been playing percussion professionally since the age of 13 and has performed in a myriad of different groups spanning almost every musical genre.

Since 2020 Mr. Venman has worked as a K-12 music teacher and has taught over 5000 private drum, ukulele, piano and guitar lessons in the southern NH area. Mr. Venman holds a Bachelors of Arts degree from Plymouth State University and will begin teaching music for grades K-8 at The Well School in fall 2022.

Contact: killianvenman.com/contact