

here is a screen shot of the odiorne state park map from alltrails.com. here's the link if you want to use the actual map:

https://www.alltrails.com/explore/us/new-hampshire/rye?b_tl_lat=43.05607194962366&b_tl_lng=-70.73178802513124&b_br_lat=43.045619055838415&b_br_lng=-70.71158518955929

the red x marks the boat launch parking lot where you should park, and the green line marks the hike that I describe in this scavenger hunt.

if you are a rule breaker, your final destination is frost point (that big skinny rectangle sticking out into the ocean) so please feel free to get there anyway you see fit.

have fun be safe <3
